MISSIONARIES TO ARGENTINA

20 Days Out!!

My friends, ministry partners and prayer warriors,

This update is going to be extremely transparent and a little unusual. There are not many things I don't just absolutely love about serving as a missionary on the foreign field. Language can be tricky at times, as there are good days and bad days. Working with people across cultural barriers often has its challenges, but I love getting to work with people.

However, there is one area of missions that I almost hate...yes, I know, hate is a strong word. But this particular area is difficult for me on a personal level. Maybe because of my pride, or I hope its more for my desire to be extremely careful of never taking advantage of the kindness and generosity of others. The Lord knows.

So here it is... We have 20 days until the final building payment is due. This is the biggest weight I have on my shoulders at this present time, and I know that the Lord is using it to build my faith and mature me spiritually. However, we are still in need of $25,000 before the 15th of March in order to own our property outright. After this payment, I can begin working to complete construction and Lord willing put this building to good use for the sake of the Gospel!

So here is what I am asking:

- 1) Will you commit to pray that God will provide our financial needs for this property?
- 2) Will you pray that God will use this property to see an Army of believers raised up to reach Argentina with the Gospel of Jesus Christ?
- 3) And will you ask God if He would have you personally be a part of making this vision become a reality?

If you would like to give toward our property fund, please do so by sending a check to:

Thank you again for your love, prayers, and support of our family and ministry!
